

DEPUTY GOVERNOR
IMO STATE
Nigeria

17th July, 2023

Barr. Nnamdi R. Anyaehie

Nnanano Nkwerre Autonomous Community
Nkwerre Local Government Area
Imo State.

Dear Barr. Anyaehie

EXIT OF A DISTINGUISHED MONARCH-LETTER OF CONDOLENCE

I write to express my heartfelt sympathy to you, your siblings and the entire Anyaehie Royal family on the demise of your dear and beloved brother and Monarch, His Royal Highness, Eze Ngozi Anyaehie – Imenyi of Nnanano, Nkwerre Autonomous Community in Nkwerre LGA of Imo State, who sadly passed to eternal glory on 17th March, 2023.

His Royal Highness, Eze Ngozi Anyaehie was a renowned and pragmatic Traditional Ruler, who distinguished himself in the knowledge of the cultures, customs, and traditions of his people – Nnanano Nkwerre Autonomous Community. He was an astute tactician, a mentor, a sagacious businessman, an accomplished philanthropist, and a father figure to many people.

Socially, the late monarch was a dedicated, committed and strong practicing Christian of the Anglican faith till death. The eulogies testify to the many lives he positively impacted, and attest to his love for God, humanity and society. He was also a beacon of hope for the community, a role model to friends, a good family man and worthy brother. Indeed, HRH, Eze Ngozi lived a fulfilled life, and he will be missed by many for many for his fatherly warmth and wise counsel.

On behalf of my family and the Office of the Deputy Governor, I pray that Almighty God grants the entire Anyaehie Royal family, relations, the Nnanano Nkwerre community, the fortitude and grace to bear this irreparable loss.

May the gentle soul of His Royal Highness, Late Eze Ngozi Anyaehie rest in eternal peace, Amen.

Prof. Placid C. Njoku
Deputy Governor
