MEMORIAL TRIBUTE

RE: LATE HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS, EZE NGOZI ANYAEHIE – IMENYI OF NNANANO NKWERRE AUTONOMOUS COMMUNITY, NKWERRE L.G.A, IMO STATE

It is with a heavy heart, but in total submission to the will of God, that I pen down this Tribute in honour of a Great Patriarch and Ruler, HRH EZE NGOZI ANYAEHIE (IMENYI), who passed on to glory on March 17, 2023 after a brief illness, at the age of 76.

HRH EZE NGOZI ANYAEHIE was an illustrious King and Leader, one of the most beloved personalities in Nkwerre Community, who devoted his life to serving his people with grace and compassion. He was a true inspiration to all who knew him and will be deeply missed.

Throughout his reign, the great King, EZE IMENYI, worked tirelessly to improve the lives of his subjects and ensured that everyone had access to basic necessities like food, shelter, and healthcare. He was very hospitable, as his home was open to all and sundry.

He worked to build strong and long-lasting relationships with neighbouring kingdoms, fostering a sense of unity and peace throughout the Eastern region.

I spoke frequently with Uncle Ngozi (as I fondly called him) over the phone and had video calls with him, while he was in the hospital, and he assured me that his health was improving. Whom will I henceforth hail "IMEEEEEENYI!!!!"? Who would laugh in response?

Uncle Ngozi was always ready to listen to people's concerns and to offer guidance and support, when needed. His generosity and kindness touched the hearts of all who came in contact with him and he was loved by the young and old alike.

Even in his passing, Uncle Ngozi's legacies live on. His unwavering dedication to his people has inspired a new generation of leaders, and his spirit will continue to guide us as we work towards building a better Imo State. We are grateful for the times we shared with him, and we will forever cherish the many ways in which he touched lives.

To the entire Anyaehie Royal Family, most especially, Michi, Nkeiru and Chimdi, I say, kaa obi. It is well! May the Lord comfort you all.

Rest in peace, IMEEEEEEEEEENYI!!!!!!!. You will always be remembered as a great King and a dependable Leader.

Her Excellency,
Chief Barr. Chioma Uzodimma
First Lady, Imo State
