My Beloved Brother,
Prince Chimdi,
The Kings Palace
Obi Nnanano
Nnanano Nkwerre Atutononomous Community
Umuchukwu Village Nkwerre

Dearest Prince Chimdi,

MESSAGE OF CONDOLENCE

The sad news of the demise of your late father and the Eze of Nnanano Nkwerre Autonomous community, HRH Eze Ngozi Anyaehie reverberated across the continents of Africa, Europe and beyond like a wild fire that hit all our people, friends and well-wishers like a thunderbolt precisely on the 17th March 2023.

Eze Ngozi who mounted and reigned after our Eze-Elect (late Eze –Elect, Barr C.S. Nwosu) bestrode the Nnanano traditional stool like a colossus and was loved by all and sundry, full of wisdom and exudes milk of human kindness, generous to a fault, sociable and friend to the poor and rich, no wonder he was nick-named “Enyioha” in his early years by admirers and well-wishers.

Time and space would not permit me to explore all I know about this my amiable king and the 4th in line of titled men in my immediate kindred-Duru-Ojikeya-eme, Oshishi Kagba Ogwu, Agbawodike-izu (late Lord Mayor) Enyioha” and “Kpakpando” in that order) a man of the people, full of ideas and loved by all Nkwerre, at home and in Diaspora.

As we all gather today to bid farewell to the remains of your Late father, I personally crave on my behalf, wife (Ijeoma and the entire Obialor household) that you should stand bold and courageous to give your siblings (Amarachi and Nkeiruka) the leadership that the immediate family need in this trying moment while we continue to pray for Almighty God to give you all the fortitude to bear this irreplaceable loss and to the larger Anyaehie family I pray that the Lord shall remain your husband and the head of your home in Jesus mighty name.

Chief Nze Sir, Barr Chairman Chris Obialor.
(Kpakpando of Nkwerre)
