

TRIBUTE FROM MARCUS OHAGWA

Eze Imenyi,

You see, I still don't believe that I will not see you again in my lifetime.

I was with you in your wee months and weeks, believing that you will get well and return back to be with your people, but I was wrong. It wasn't the wish of God. So, who are we ordinary mortals to question the will of God.

Igwe, you were exceptionally good with people who came across you, and was a rallying point for every Dick, Tom and Harry. You cherished eating and drinking with people. I felt your goodness within the period I came close to you.

I would have wished you lived up to ninety (90) years.

Adieu my senior brother and friend, rest in peace in the bosom of the Almighty God, till we meet to part no more.

My prayer is that, those of us you left behind, especially your children, will have the fortitude to bear the irreplaceable loss.

Marcus Ohagwa
