

A TRIBUTE TO MY DEAR BROTHER, HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS, EZE NGOZI ANYAEHIE
IMENYI OF NNANANO NKWERRE
AUTONOMOUS COMMUNITY, NKWERRE
LGA, IMO STATE

Enyioha, it is difficult for me to put into words, the impact that a man like you, who was a friend to all, had on the world, but I will make an attempt. Firstly, I will start by trying to speak of your faultless heart. You had welcoming arms and great compassion for others. You were indeed a very special man. A rare breed.

Enyioha - Friend to all. This name says it all. You had no exception; in the way you embraced others. Your presence brought joy, comfort, and kindness to those around you. You were the true embodiment of the best qualities a person can possess - compassionate again, empathetic, and caring.

Enyioha, whenever I think of you, my broken heart is filled with warmth and fond memories. I will always remember, the way you made everyone feel welcomed and loved in your presence. You were always willing to lend a listening ear, offer words of encouragement and extend a helping hand. You never turned your back on anyone in need. Whether it was a friend going through a tough time or a stranger on the street, you would stop whatever you are doing to lend a helping hand. You were truly Enyioha indeed! You had a gift for bringing people together, your home was open to all. Your parties were legendary and your friends spanned every demographic one could imagine.

Enyioha, you always saw past the surface-level differences that divided us but rather focused on the things that would unite us: our shared humanity and our capacity to accommodate others. Your desire was to create happiness. You touched the lives of so many people in so many different ways. You were a confidant, a sounding board, a cheerleader, a role model, and a friend. You made the world a better place simply by being in it.

I am the luckiest to have known you, not just as a king but as my very own brother, and to have shared in your life. I will carry the memory of your kindness and generosity with me always. You may be gone, but your spirit lives on in the countless lives you touched.

IMENYI, you are not gone. You will remain evergreen in our memories. You ran a good race. Rest, till we see again.

Goodnight Enyioha, my cherished brother and King!
