*TRIBUTE TO MY BOSOM FRIEND, HRH EZE NGOZI ANYAEHIE, EZE IMENYI 1 OF NNANNANNO NKWERRE COMMUNITY, AKA, ENYIOHA NKWERRE.*

Eze Imenyi, my good friend, you've succumbed to the unavoidable call where all mortals go to at the end of their sojourn on earth. I believe that your Royal call to my house last Christmas period was to show your mortal self to me and my family. I never knew that it was going to be my last interactive session with you. Your visit was just like a premonition i was unable to decipher the coded message.

Like it's said, "to everything there's a season, a time for every purpose under the heaven; a time to be born and a time to die; a time to weep and a time to laugh; and a time to mourn and a time to dance." For we the mortals, we know we shall die one day but the dead know nothing or have an inkling of what death was all about. Life is like a pilgrimage of mortals who after our sojourn on earth must return to our Uncreated Creator.

As your Nze Enyioha titled name depicts, you're a friend to all and sundry; hence, whence cometh such a generous personality in our community again? You came, you saw and more like you achieved your earthly desires. In summation, you fought the good fight, you finished the race gallantly, you kept the faith and now, may your reposed soul rest eternally in the bosom of our Lord, Christ Jesus.
