

TRIBUTE TO MY DEAR BROTHER, HRH EZE NGOZI ANYAEHIE.

Brother, for reasons many may not know, my heart broke hearing the news of your demise. You were a good brother in so many ways to me. I will not forget how you were always proud of my family. Ever receptive of your in-law, my husband.

In my difficult times, you offered support.

In times of celebration, you were there.

Always proud of me.

It feels so surreal, imagining you are no more. Your death has left a big vacuum, that will be difficult to fill.

I thank God for the short time my husband and I were able to spend with you and Ugoeze in London last year. Those memories provide comfort.

Who will call me Chy- yo- nwe!!!?

Ya di wa!!!

You will not be forgotten.

Rest in peace my big brother.

Your sister, Barr. (Mrs.) Chinwe Promise Iromuanya
