

A Tribute to H.R.H. Eze Ngozi Anyaehie

My friend and brother,

As I sit here with tears streaming down my face, I struggle to find the words to express the pain of losing you.

You fought hard. But God knows better. I really lost a dear friend.

Though you have left us far too soon, the memories we shared will never fade. Your impact on our lives will always remain, and the love you gave will never be forgotten.

Rest in peace, my friend, knowing that you are forever cherished and deeply missed by all who knew you.

May your spirit soar in the heavens above,

Till we meet again, sleep well in the Lord.

Adieu Enyioha.

Mr. DND Onyechor.