

Tribute to Eze Imenyi of Nnanano Autonomous Community Nkwerre, HRH Eze Ngozi Anyaehie

Only one who has had an encounter with you would believe me when I say that you are an indescribable man. There are really no words to describe the love you had for my family especially, the love you had with my children, which they always say, "Mummy, call Big Daddy on video call, we want to talk to him" and this made me cry each time they say this.

Your Highness, you took my children like your own children, you never allowed them to lack anything. I can't describe the blow that came to my heart when I heard the shocking news of your demise. It's often difficult to find the right comforting words at this moment.

Though death is inevitable, we cannot really come to terms that you are now physically separated from us forever. What a world, what a misery, what a wicked place we live in. Like the sun in the morning, you came to us like the moon of the night, you vanished to the world beyond but we know you have gone to live on.

We will continue to miss you Onyeze m, as I fondly called you, the ways you touched our lives will remain and we will keep our memories with you alive.

It is very hard to say goodbye.

Goodbye HRH Eze Ngozi Anyaehie, Onyeze m, Eze Imenyi of Nnanano Autonomous Community Nkwerre.
