

EXIT OF HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS, EZE NGOZI ANYAEHIE (IMENYI OF NNANANO NKWERRE AUTONOMOUS COMMUNITY)

I was covered with over whelming fear and shock when a friend called me from Canada and broke the news of your demise to me. I said wonderful, Enyioha as I always call him is gone; An Iroko tree that has many big branches has fallen.

What a man of great integrity, A mighty man of valour, A visionary of impeccable character, is silenced by death. A top class gentle man, who was so dutiful and committed as Eze Nnanano.

The people of Umuchukwu Village, Nnanano and entire Nkwerre indigenes, who always run to you to seek for wisdom and direction, most especially the weak, vulnerable and the down-trodden never left without hope.

Most especially, I cannot ignore to mention about your social life and Interaction with people around you. This was immortalized with the name, “Enyioha” (meaning friend of all).

You never lived a life of recluse, but was always careful about social invitations that you honoured.

As a man of great sense of humour, you tell funny stories with exciting experiences.

Enyioha, I still see you as a living legend. No one who knew you, will forget you in a hurry. You will be remembered for the promising future and purposeful leadership you had for Nnanano people.

Everyone is missing you, your immediate family, relations, friends, well-wishers and entire Nnanano as a whole.

Sleep on and continue to sleep well, until we meet to part no more.

Elder Emma C. Uzoma
