

TRIBUTE

It is with a heavy heart that I write this tribute in honour of my beloved uncle, HRH EZE NGOZI ANYAEHIE.

My “Big Daddy” (as I fondly called him), truly was an embodiment of this name to me. He loved and cared for me as his own. I have so many fond memories to hold onto. I’ve learnt so much from how he conducted his life on earth, his generosity and kind heart. Arms always open, doors always open.

He was the pillar holding the Anyaehie family together especially after the passing of his mother (my grandmother) Ezinne Victoria Adaoha Anyaehie, and this vacuum now created can never be filled. We are grateful though, for the privilege to have experienced a love as pure as his and we find comfort in our memories of him.

I take solace in the fact that you are resting with your creator and pray that the Lord comforts and sustains the entire Anyaehie clan.

Rest in God’s perfect peace.

Your Niece,

Dr. Anyaehie Sharon Chinemerem
