

In Loving Memory:

A Tribute to My Beloved Brother, HRH Eze Ngozi Anyaehie, Imenyi 1

In the quiet corners of my heart, a profound sadness lingers as I bid farewell to my dear brother.

I offer a personal tribute, infused with love and fond memories. As I reflect on the memories I hold on to the laughter, the deep conversations we shared my heart swells of grief.

It was truly an honour to have prayed for you before you were taken away.

You were a style icon! This is comforting for me. Farewell my Brother.
